So You Want To Dance

Today, Ballroom dancing is more popular than ever – millions of people are fans of “Dancing with the Stars” and “So You Think You Can Dance.” Perhaps you’ve imagined how great it would be if you knew how to dance for all those special occasions . . . weddings, holiday functions, an upcoming cruise, etc. But it’s never been the right time because you’re too busy, have “two left feet” or don’t have the time.

Whether you are young or just young at heart, Goddard dance classes are designed to fulfill your individual goals and interests. In the Club's supportive atmosphere, students have an opportunity to express themselves through movement and rhythm, improve their health, develop a new hobby and meet new friends.

Goddard Dance Club – Be Our Guest

Don’t take our word for it that dancing is fun and that the Goddard Dance Club is a great place to learn how to dance – we invite you to attend your first class and dance practice at no charge. So what do you have to lose?

The Goddard Dance Club is dedicated to creating an atmosphere where dancing is fun – whether you are listening to the delightful dance music provided by our DJ and instructor, Chip Atwood; talking with friends while enjoying the free snacks and beverages provided on Friday nights; or participating in one of the dance classes and practice sessions offered on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays – you’ll get an opportunity to learn to dance at your own pace in a relaxed environment.

It's easy and your first visit is FREE. Just Google “Goddard Dance Club”, go to the website Classes page, select the class you want to attend and contact the class representative to let them know what night you’ll be there.

Why the Goddard Dance Club?

- The NASA Goddard Space Flight Center Building 8 Auditorium, where all classes and dances are held, is one of the best wooden dance floors in the area.
- We make dancing affordable – Google “Goddard Dance Club” and check out the Classes page (<http://gewa.gsfc.nasa.gov/clubs/dance/PAGE3.HTM>) to get all the latest details on class days, times, costs and what dances are being taught.
- We make dancing fun. The Goddard Dance Club promotes social ballroom dancing. The instructor rotates partners during classes and experienced dancers are encouraged to reach out and help anyone new to dancing.
